

Acknowledgements

The establishment of ANOHA Children's World is thanks in part to the wide-ranging dedication and commitment of the Federal Government Commissioner of Culture and Media, companies, foundations and private individuals.

As supporters and patrons, they contribute to innovative and long-term projects. Examples include the mobile educational programs, through which ANOHA travels to visit children who would not otherwise have the opportunity to visit the Children's World; or the enshrinement of the Early Excellence approach, which centers on the uniqueness and special potential of every single child. The Children's Council's ongoing work as an expert advisory board and the high-quality furnishings and media technology of the education rooms were also funded by donations.

We would like to thank our supporters and patrons for their generous contribution and their dedication to the JMB:
